The following applies when a student is exempt/not taking an exam AND is reporting to school in person:

- If a student is exempt from their 1st exam but must take their 2nd exam:
 - They are to report to the auditorium and ‘sign in’.
 - They will remain in the auditorium until the 1st exam period finishes.
- Any student exempt from their 1st period exam and reporting late to school to take their 2nd exam:
 - The student will sign in upon arrival and remain in the auditorium until the designated time to report to the 2nd exam.
- If a student is taking their 1st exam AND is exempt from their 2nd exam:
 - Seniors will be permitted to sign themselves out in the auditorium in this case.
 - Underclassmen must be signed out by parent/guardian outside the main entrance.
 - If students exempt from their second exam are taking their school bus home, they must remain in the auditorium until dismissal.

(Below is the same information as referenced previously in chart form)

Additional IMPORTANT NOTES Related to Final Exams:

- Parental notification for students to be dismissed early on an exam day may be provided to the attendance office prior to the date.
- Parental notification should include: Student name, grade, date of exam, which exam student is exempt from, and parent/guardian contact information.
- Classes will not be interrupted during Final Exam periods. Please plan any appointments for after dismissal.
- Final exam schedules have been set. These dates and times are the expected and required times for students to take their exams. Students should not ask teachers to reschedule them.
- SENIORS must have all make-up exams completed on or before 12:45 PM on Tuesday, June 18, 2024
- Arrangements for all other make-up exams must be made by appointment with the main office starting on Monday, June 24, 2024. The school building is open 8AM to 3PM in the summer.
